

Square of Life

Our Observations:

We were excited about all of the things we found. Grandview Elementary seemed to find a greater variety of animal life than we did. The plant species found in both locations are very similar, however, Grandview Elementary has different types of trees than we have at our school. We found more non-living items than Grandview Elementary.

From,
St. Genevieve School
Flourtown, Pennsylvania